Generation 1

1. Jane Ann "Jennie" Otley (daughter of Thomas Coultas Otley and Amy Ann Robinson) was born on 15 Sep 1861 in Illinois. She died on 28 Nov 1961 in Los Angeles, California. She married Leo Lincoln Lyford (son of Joseph Lyford and Sarah Anna Josephine Hinman) on 15 Feb 1883 in At home of T.C. Otley, Neponset, Illinois. He was born on 30 Nov 1860 in Neponset, Bureau Co., IL. He died on 20 Mar 1955 in Los Angeles, California.

Notes for Jane Ann "Jennie" Otley:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandr dot com):

I have a letter to Jennie Lyford dated Oct 4, 1922. It's from "Cousin Ellen," in Kewanee, IL. She says she "thinks Grandma had three brothers, William, John and Thomas Chapman." She is correct. She says John Otley, Sr. and wife, Jane, came to the U.S. from the County of Yorkshire, England in 1840. They bought a farm near Winchester, Scott Co., IL. They had 10 children. John Otley, Jr. died on his farm in 1855. John, Sr. died on the farm on a Friday evening, Aug. 5, 1864, at the age of 78 years, 6 months, 13 days.

We visited Neponset in September of 1998 and met several Lyford cousins, all warm and delightfully friendly people. They were Moses Victor, Scott and sister Helen. They pronounce the town name as: "knee-pon-set." Helen Lyford said she recalls "Aunt Jane (Jennie Lyford) saying: "If the Lord meant you to smoke, he'd have built you with a chimney."

We have very little information about Great Grandmother Jennie, except that my parents have said she was a strong-willed woman.

Clyde Lyford's benefits application lists her mother as Jennie Ann Otley.

Notes for Leo Lincoln Lyford:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandr dot com):

Leo and Jennie met at the home of friends (Grandma Clyde says they met at a barn dance). He says a little about this in his diary, which I have. They were married 2-15-1883, by Rev. Wilson. Leo was 22 and Jennie was 21.

There were two churches in Neponset, Congregational and Methodist. The Lyfords went to the Methodist. Grandma Clyde and her sister, Jane, sang in the choir. The Lyfords had a farm. On the Neponset farm they raised oats and corn on more than 200 acres. They had a horse and cows. They had a "good" house. Grandma Clyde said she rode the horse. They also had a buggy, which Grandma said she liked to make "go fast." When Joseph Lyford died March 1, 1900, Leo used his share of the inheritance to move his family to Kewanee.

The Lyfords moved from Kewanee to Los Angeles in 1903. According to Grandma Clyde, in a tape-recorded talk with me, Jennie's cousin, Lillian Galloway Murdock first moved from Kewanee to California. Her letters "helped to spread the fever to the Lyfords." They went to LA on a "tourist train." The trip took about a week and they had a "great time." They bought a house on Maple Street in central Los Angeles and lived there until moving to 1407 Portia St., which is near Chavez Ravine (now home of Dodger Stadium). Lillian and another close friend even lived with them for a while.

Leo Lyford, a farmer in Illinois, went to work for the gas company. Later, Hazel (and, maybe, Uncle Bert) helped get him on at Union Hardware & Metals, in LA, where he stayed 25 years.

When the family moved to 1407 Portia Street, in LA on December 2, 1921, they bought a square of adjoining lots. Great Grandma and Grandpa (Leo and Jennie) lived at 1407 Portia, LA. One house to the north were Hazel and Bert Caudry. Behind Hazel were Aymee and Bernie Hudson.

Behind Great Grandma and Great Grandpa was a small house owned by one of them that was a rental. When they bought, there was one house on the lot. The Lyfords built a second house for income. Aunt Hazel later bought it. Aymee and Uncle Bernie built the third house (the tiny one) to live in while they built their house on McDuff.

Leo and Jennie became members of the first Nazarene Church to be founded, called: First Church of the Nazarene, at 1177 West 25th St., Los Angeles. Dr. P.F. Bresee was the founder. This was March 20, 1903, when the church was at 6th and Wall St., its second address. Leo was a long-time faithful worker, according to church newsletter. Jennie was a greeter at the door for 30+ years.

The family has a certificate that reads: "In Memoriam. This certificate is presented in memory of Mr. L.L. Lyford whose name has been placed on the Memorial Roll Nazarene Foreign Missionary Society Church of the Nazarene. Los Angeles First Church, May 17, 1955."

From the Nazarene church newsletter: "Translated to the more excellent glory, Leo L. Lyford passed away in the glorious triumph of the Christian Faith in the early morning of March 20, 1955 at the age of ninety-four. We will hold in precious memory this saintly man who with Mother Lyford occupied the front seat of the sanctuary for so many years. Brother and sister Lyford celebrated their seventy-second wedding anniversary last month. They were received in the membership of First Church by its founder and first pastor, Dr. P.F. Bresee and have been loyal members for fifty-two years. The funeral was conducted at Bresee Brothers' Mortuary with Dr. Weaver W. Hess officiating. Mrs. Ruth Miller sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "In the Sweet By and By." Mrs. Mary Stewart was at the chapel organ. Our deep sympathies are extended to Mother and the family."

The family also has a church bulletin from April, 1950. In it is a photo of Grandpa Lyford on his knees, driving nails as he helps build the new Nazarene church. The caption says: "Dad" Lyford, Old-Timer, Faithful Worker on New Church Building. Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Lyford joined the church in 1903. They have been members for 47 years. From Illinois they came to Los Angeles in the month of February. In March they joined the march from the tabernacle on Los Angeles Street to the new church building at Sixth and Wall. Mr. and Mrs. Lyford have been married 67 years. "Dad" Lyford will be 90 years of age his next birthday. He is a forward looking man building bridges for youth. He faithfully works on the new church building. He hits the nail on the head. In such a spirit he will never die. He will live forever." A handwritten note in the margin says he worked 200 hours on the building.

From a "This is your life" presentation to the Lyfords at the Nazarene Church, commemorating their 70th wedding anniversary: "Leo and Jennie were born in Neponset. Great Grandpa Lyford [Leo's Great Grandpa] went there in 1834 and helped to start the town. He owned the general store and grain elevator. Great Grandpa Otley was a cattleman. The Lyfords met at the home of friends, and Leo said it was love at first sight. One afternoon later, as Jennie was ironing, she received a letter. The letter was from Leo asking for a date. They were married Feb. 15, 1883 by Rev. Wilson. Leo was 22, Jennie was 21.

"The Lyfords joined the first Nazarene church to be founded, on Los Angeles St. The preacher was Dr. Bresee, who founded the church. A small boy, who became a charter member of the church and later a minister and scholar is the Dr. J. Proctor Knott [his photo is in Aymee's HS yearbook]. He is here to honor the Lyfords. When the Grand Ave. church was founded in 1908, the Lyfords became charter members. The church used to meet in homes and have prayer meetings. Leo used to lead out in choruses, particularly "I believe the Bible." By 1910, the Lyfords both came back to First church again.

"We would like to say in closing that Mr. and Mrs. Lyford have been faithful in their attendance and support of the church all these years. It was an inspiration and a challenge to all the men of this church to see Mr. Lyford down here night after night, and sometimes days, doing heavy work, helping to build a new church; and Mrs. Lyford has stood at the door greeting friends and strangers for more than 30 years."

From a newspaper clipping (LA Times): "Couple Mark 70th Anniversary by Exchanging Verbal Valentines. Leo Lincoln Lyford, 92, and his wife Jennie Ann, 91, marking their 70th anniversary yesterday, exchanged verbal 'Valentines,' in answer to the question: 'How have you managed almost three-quarters of a century of wedded bliss?' 'It was easy,' Lyford began. 'She's always been a good wife and...' 'Say,' his wife interrupted. 'He did it. He did it by being the perfect husband. He doesn't smoke, drink or chew.' 'Tried all three a couple of times,' Lyford admitted, ruefully. 'Made me sick every time.'

"Both were born in Neponset, Illinois. Lyford's middle name [Lincoln] springs from the fact that he was born the same year (1860) that Abraham Lincoln was elected to his first term as president. Married in Neponset in 1883, the couple has made their home in Los Angeles since 1903. Lyford was retired from the Union Hardware & Metals Co. in 1931.

" 'As I recall,' Lyford said, 'our marriage had sort of a grim beginning.' Seems that about 50 guests attended their wedding and during the reception afterward one of those Midwest snowstorms struck hard. All the guests had to spend the night with the bride and groom. The sun was shining brightly yesterday, however, on the little cottage at 1407 Portia St. where the Lyfords entertained some 80 guests, including their four daughters, eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren."

On their 71st wedding anniversary LA Examiner ran a photo of the Lyfords, calling them the "longest married couple in Los Angeles County."

The Lyfords celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary on Feb. 15, 1955, just four weeks before he died. (from newspaper obit.). Leo is buried in Inglewood Memorial Park.

I was nine when Great Grandpa Lyford was on the verge of death. Dad and I went from Van Nuys to LA to see him in the hospital. He was weak, but cheerful. My recollection is that he just got tired of living and decided to stop eating, but I was a kid, so who knows for sure. What I do recall clearly, though, is that Leo looked at Dad and me and said: "Can you believe it? Married 72 years to the same woman!" Then he gave us a little smile. He died shortly after we left the hospital.

When Leo died Jennie took over the use of his favorite chair. When she died at the age of 100, the chair was given to me, along with a covered compote dish that was a wedding gift to the Lyfords and some other small mementos. The chair now sits in my home office and is my favorite resting place. We also have a pole lamp with a cast metal ship finial on it that was theirs. One of my favorite items, though, is a tiny book of Bible devotional thoughts that was given to Leo by his Grandmother, Sarah Whitcomb Hinman (my Third Great Grandmother, born in 1816).

I remember that the Lyfords were kind and gentle people who were rather strict in some aspects of their religious life. One of those being that boys had to wear long pants and girls had to wear dresses. When they came to visit we had to dress to suit their belief. I remember that my sister and I had to run for the house to change when the Lyfords pulled into our driveway in Van Nuys unexpectedly one afternoon.

Generation 2

2. Thomas Coultas Otley (son of John Otley Sr. and Jane Chapman) was born on 05 Oct 1833 in Christened Nov 3, 1833, Westow, England. He died on 14 Oct 1913 in Neponset Cemetery, Neponset, IL. He married Amy Ann Robinson (daughter of Samuel Robinson and A. Ann Pollard) on 14 Feb 1858 in Bureau County, Illinois.
3. Amy Ann Robinson (daughter of Samuel Robinson and A. Ann Pollard) was born on 22 Apr 1834 in Dutchess Co, New York. She died on 08 May 1865 in Neponset, IL.

Notes for Thomas Coultas Otley:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandrw dot com):

From Clyde Williams, talking to LH:

Grandma Clyde and the family of her generation gave his middle name as "Colton." English records say "Coultas."

Thomas Otley had a farm in Neponset which he sold about 1900-03. They then bought a hotel in town -- The Otley House. Grandpa Otley's first wife -- Amy Ann (Jennie's mother)-- died in a fire. She was filling oil lamps. Jennie was age three. Thomas Otley's second wife was younger. She helped to run the hotel (What can I say? That's how Grandma Clyde told it to me).

From book: Voters and Taxpayers of Bureau County, Neponset Township:
Thomas Otley was a farmer, Democrat, Methodist, owned 1650 acres valued at $16,000.

From book: History of Bureau County, page ____
"Thomas C. Otley, Neponset. The subject of this sketch was born October 5, 1833, in Westow, Yorkshire, England. He is a son of John and Jane (Chapman) Otley. (See the genealogy of the Otley family in a preceding sketch). Our subject was principally reared in Scott County, Ill. to which he came with his parents in the fall of 1840. He remained there till after he reached his majority, and then came to Neponset Township, Bureau County, where he formed a partnership with his brother George, which lasted several years. During that time they dealt in cattle and livestock and farmed. After they dissolved partnership, our subject continued the stock business for some years. He now lives on a farm of 160 acres in Section 22. Mr. Otley was married twice. His first wife, Emma Robinson, was a native of Dutchess County, NY She died here, leaving five children, viz: Alonzo, Addie, Jane, Lizzie and Amy. Mr. Otley was married a second time September 23, 1866, to Charlotte Phillips, who was born May 6, 1844, in Cortland County, N.Y. She is the mother of Charlotte Otley, who was born January 24, 1868. Mrs. Otley is a daughter of William and Malinda (Helmer) Phillips, natives of New York, where the latter died. The former died in Neponset, Ill., to which he came in 1864. Mr. Otley is no office seeker, and politically he is identified with the Democratic party."

1910 U.S. Census - Thomas and Charlotte were running their hotel in Neponset.
1865 State Census shows TC Otley living in Brawby, Bureau Co.

Notes for Amy Ann Robinson:
These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandr dot com):

1850 US Census, Pawtucket, Bristol, MA, spells her name Amey and family name Robenson.

She died when Jennie Otley was 3. Grandma (Jennie) said she was filling an oil lamp used for curling her hair when there was a fire.

Reference in Neponset Historical Society Office, Sept 1998, says "Amy/Emma Anne Robinson, born 1834." A family note says she went by "Ann." (or Anne).

Historical Society notes say the Robinson family was among the first arriving from the east to settle in Neponset, but was it Amy's Robinsons? A Bureau Co. history says "Emma" was a native of Dutchess Co., NY.

1860 New York Census, 1790-1890 Amy A. Robinson, Dutchess Co., NY, City of Poughkeepsie. This appears to be our Amy. She is 26 or 28 in the census. She appears to be a dressmaker. The problems are these: she was married, gave birth to Alonzo in 1858, and the Otleys were already in Illinois.

There's also an Amy Robinson 1860 Oneida County, Town of Camden.

Generation 3

- 4. John Otley Sr. (son of George Otley and Ann Coultas) was born on 23 Jan 1786 in Westow, County of Yorkshire, England. He died on 05 Aug 1864 in Scott County, Illinois. He married Jane Chapman (daughter of Chapman) on 21 Aug 1816 in Kirby Misperton, Yorkshire, Eng..
- 5. Jane Chapman (daughter of Chapman) was born on 08 Jan 1796 in Byton, County of Yorkshire, England. She died on 29 Oct 1875 in Near Kewanee, Illinois.

Notes for John Otley Sr.:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandr dot com):

John and Jane Otley moved from County of Yorkshire, England to the U.S. in 1840. They bought a farm near Winchester, Scott Co., IL. John Sr. died on the farm Aug. 5, 1864. He was 78. John was born in Yorkshire, Jan. 23, 1786. Jane Chapman Otley was born Jan. 8, 1796. She was baptized Jan. 12, 1796.

Wendy Jones (stevjon@direct.ca) has LDS records showing marriage of John and Jane, and dates for christening of their children. She also has a Thomas Otley, born 1833 and married to Elizabeth Atlans in England.

Graham Welson, London, Ontario, has Otley info (Lundin@aol). He says most Yorkshire Otleys had earlier roots in Westmorland.

Otley is a town in County of Yorkshire. Appleby is also a town in same County.

From a memorial written by W.F. Short, Winchester, IL Aug. 11, 1864:

"For 40 years John Sr. was a member of the church and as long as health permitted was very active in promoting the cause of religion. Mr. Otley was regarded as an honorable man, a worthy citizen and a sincere Christian. He was renowned for bold and outspoken condemnation of what he believed to be wrong. While in England his house was long used for preaching the gospel. In this country, it was the preacher's home, and many a time has the homeless itinerant there found

John Otley, was also a native of Yorkshire, where he engaged in farming until 1840, when he came to the United States and settled near Winchester, Scott county, Illinois, where he purchased a tract of unimproved land of three hundred acres. With characteristic energy he began its development and successfully carried on the work of the fields until his death, which occurred August 5, 1864, when he was seventy-eight years of age. He organized and built the first log schoolhouse of the district and also organized the first religious congregation, which held its services in the schoolhouse. It was through his instrumentality that the first circuit rider came to this district and in the early years the visiting ministers here were always entertained in his home. Thus, while carefully conducting his business interest, he also contributed to the intellectual and moral progress of the community and his labors were a valuable factor in the early progress of the county. He married Jane Chapman, also a native of Yorkshire, and her death occurred October 29, 1875, at the age of seventy-nine years, in the home which is now occupied by her son Robert. The children of the family (sic) were George, John, Robert, Thomas C., Richard, William and four daughters who died in England. Only two are now living, Robert, and Thomas, the latter a retired farmer of Neponset, Illinois.

Notes for Jane Chapman:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandr dot com):

Jane Otley, born in Yorkshire, came to America (Scott County, IL) with her husband and family in 1840. She died October 29, 1875, at her son's residence in Kewanee. Mrs. Otley was 78 at her death. From a memorial talk or newspaper report:

"In 1865 she came to this county with her son, Robert Otley. She had been a life-time member of the church, and was connected with it 58 years. At the time of her death, she was a member of the ME church. Her sweet Christian character ever cast around her that influence which made her loved and respected by those who made her acquaintance. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of Robert Otley, Kewanee, Oct. 31, by the Rev. G.W. Arnold. She is buried in Winchester, IL. On Nov. 1 she was followed to her last resting place by a large concourse of friends and relatives."

The birth dates for the Otley children are from several Lyford family date books and Aunt Hazel Caudry's Notarial Board notebook

Letter from a relative in Kewanee to Jennie Lyford, 1922

Mentions Jennie's Cousin Ellen. Says "Grandma" had three brothers, William, John and Thomas Chapman who settled in Palmyra, New York State. "When Grandma was living I think they were all here to see her. Lida Lilley says she remembers seeing them. The only one I remember is Uncle William Chapman.

"John Otley Sr. died at his residence in Scott Co., Illinois Friday evening, August 5, 1864. mr. John Otley Sr., aged seventy-eight year six months 13 days. ..." See the letter in the Leo & Jennie Documents folder. The rest of the Otley data reads like a copy of his newspaper obituary.

Jane Chapman and John Otley Sr. had the following children:

- i. Ann Otley (daughter of John Otley Sr. and Jane Chapman) was born on 03 Feb 1817 in Christened in Kirby, Misperton, Yorkshire Feb 9, 1817. She died in

- iii. Hannah Otley (daughter of John Otley Sr. and Jane Chapman) was born on 27 Jan 1822 in This is actually date Christened in Acklam by Malton, Yorkshire. She died in Dec 1834 in Yorkshire, England.
- iv. George Otley (son of John Otley Sr. and Jane Chapman) was born on 20 Jan 1824 in Christened 6-30-1824, Westow, Yorkshire, England. He died on 30 Sep 1891 in Buried Neponset Cemetery, Neponset, IL. He married Jane Haxby (daughter of George Haxby and Rachel Hodgson) on 03 Jan 1850 in Scott Co., IL. She was born about 1829 in Baniston, Yorkshire, England. She died in 1915 in Neponset Cemetery, Neponset, IL.

Notes for George Otley:

From Voters and Taxpayers of Bureau County, Neponset Township:

George was a farmer and stock raiser in Neponset. This says he was born May 20, 1824. Came to this County 1853; Republican and Episcopal; owns 640 acres of land, valued at $48,000. Mr. Otley has been engaged for the last five or six years in raising blooded stock. Some of the finest bred in the county are to be found in his herd. Among the most noted families may be seen fine specimens of the Louans, Princesses, Gawyane, Young Marv's, Stancy, etc. He also owns the celebrated bull, Baron Bates Third. He also has some very nice sheep. Mrs. Otley was Miss Jane Haxby of Yorkshire, England, .....

History of Bureau County:

"Our subject was educated in England. He came to the United States with his parents, who settled in Scott County, IL in the fall of 1840. He farmed in Scott County till 1853, when he came to Neponset Township, Bureau Co., IL, where he engaged in farming and raising stock. He was one of the first to introduce thoroughbred stock into the county, and deserves credit for what he has done in that direction. Mr. Otley was married January 8, 1850, in Scott County, IL to Jane Haxby, a native of Baniston, Yorkshire, England. She is a daughter of George and Rachel (Hodgson) Haxby. Both were natives of England, and both died in Annawan, Henry Co., IL. Mrs. Otley is the mother of eight children, viz.: Pamela A., Mary E., Margaret, William J., Eliza J., Christiana, Robert and Arthur H.H. Of the above, the first three are deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Otley are noted for their hospitality. They are both members of the Episcopal Church of Kewanee, IL. Politically Mr. Otley is a Democrat."

- v. Jane Otley (daughter of John Otley Sr. and Jane Chapman) was born on 18 Dec 1826 in Christened Feb 4, 1827, Westow, Yorkshire, England. She died in 1834 in Yorkshire, England.
- vi. John Otley (son of John Otley Sr. and Jane Chapman) was born on 24 Nov 1829 in Christened Jan 3, 1830, Westow, Yorkshire, England. He died on 03 Jul 1855.
- vii. Robert Otley (son of John Otley Sr. and Jane Chapman) was born on 13 Jan 1831 in England. He died on 05 May 1910 in IL. He married Rebecca Gibbs on 27 Jan 1858 in Winchester, Scott Co, IL. She was born in Illinois. She died before 1880.

Notes for Robert Otley:

In the book "Neponset's 100 years", page 27 it says that Robert "brought the first thoroughbred cow into the country, for which he paid $1,100, and a common cow was selling for $10 to $30. A few years later his brother, George, bought two Shorthorn cows for $3,000 each and they were sold a few months later for slaughter as they did not produce any offspring. These full-blooded animals attracted much attention and people traveled long distances to see them."

History of Henry County, published 1910, by Kiner, Vol 2, Pioneer Publishing, Chicago Il
p. 387-389
Robert Otley

Robert Otley follows farming on section 34, Kewanee township, and has contributed in substantial measure toward the agricultural development of the district. He has also taken an active part in the substantial growth of Kewanee in that he has laid out three different additions to the city and has operated quite largely in real estate. His sound business judgment and enterprise are recognized as salient features in his life work, bringing to him creditable success which is today his. He was born in Westow, Yorkshire, England, June 13, 1831.

His father, John Otley, was also a native of Yorkshire, where he engaged in farming until 1840, when he came to the United States and settled near Winchester, Scott county, Illinois, where he purchased a tract of unimproved land of three hundred acres. With characteristic energy he began its development and successfully carried on the work of the fields until his death, which occurred August 5, 1864, when he was seventy-eight years of age. He organized and built the first log schoolhouse of the district and also organized the first religious congregation, which held its services in the schoolhouse. It was through his instrumentality that the first circuit rider came to this district and in the early years the visiting ministers here were always entertained in his home. Thus, while carefully conducting his business interest, he also contributed to the intellectual and moral progress of the community and his labors were a valuable factor in the early progress of the county. He married Jane Chapman, also a native of Yorkshire, and her death occurred October 29, 1875, at the age of seventy-nine years, in the home which is now occupied by her son Robert. The children of the family (sic) were George, John, Robert, Thomas C., Richard, William and four daughters who died in England. Only two are now living, Robert, and Thomas, the latter a retired farmer of Neponset, Illinois.

Robert Otley acquired his education in the old log schoolhouse which his father built near Winchester, mastering the branches of learning through the winter months, while with the return of spring he took his place in the fields to aid in the cultivation of the crops, and not until the harvests were gathered in the autumn did he again have the privilege of attending school. When twenty-four years of age, upon his father's retirement, he took charge of the home farm and conducted it until he purchased his present farm of two hundred and fifty-four acres on the south line of Kewanee township and just southeast of the village. The former owner of the property was Sullivan Howard. The purchase was made in March, 1865, and Mr. Otley removed to the farm on which he has since lived. Later he bought forty acres in the village, adjoining his original tract on the west. In 1874 he erected a fine house of the first tract to replace the old dwelling. He brought with him from Scott county to this farm in 1865 forty head of cattle, a part of which were thoroughbred shorthorns, and for fifteen years he engaged extensively in the breeding of fine cattle and also Berkshire and Chester White hogs and high grade horses. He was the first to introduce thoroughbred shorthorns in this and some of the neighboring counties. He became widely known as a breeder throughout this section of the state and on the 10th of June, 1874, he held a sale which brought him over sixteen thousand dollars. He also engaged extensively in buying and shipping stock and was recognized as one of the foremost live-stock dealers of central Illinois. Since 1874 he has confined his attention to fine stock raising and general farming. At different times during the past fourteen years, especially in 1895, 1900 and 1902, he has operated quite extensively in real estate, laying out three additions to the city, comprising in all forty acres of land. Mr. Otley also, at his own expense, laid out one-half mile of East Prospect street, which is considered one of the finest streets in the city. he has also been interested in other real estate and now owns other farm lands and city property.

On the 28th of January, 1858, in Scott county, Illinois, Mr. Otley was married to Miss Rebecca Gibbs, a daughter of Robert and Rebecca Gibbs, who also came from England and were early settlers of Scott county, Illinois. Mrs. Otley died April 21, 1863 at the age of twenty-seven years, leaving three children: Ellen Jane who was born in 1858; Mrs. Mary May Bunton, who was born in 1861 and lives in Kewanee; and George Thomas, who was born in 1863 and follows farming near Kewanee. Alice Ann, who was born June 23, 1860, passed away on the 15th of August, 1860. Mr. Otley was married a second time in Canandaigua, New York, on the 30th of March, 1876 to Miss Mary A. Hayes, of that place. She died April 4, 1877, at the age of thirty-nine years, leaving one son, Robert Hayes Otley who was born February 23, 1877, and died on the 16th of August, of the same year.

Mr. Otley cast his first presidential vote for John C. Fremont in 1856, cheered for him in the parade at Jacksonville, Illinois, and in 1860 supported Abraham Lincoln, with whom he had a personal acquaintance. He was in the grand rally and parade at Springfield, Illinois, cheering for Lincoln and against slavery. He has since been a staunch republican, and in early life was an active worker in the ranks of the party. He served as highway commissioner for several years and assisted in laying out some of the roads here. He has always been interested in the work of public progress and his aid and influence have ever been given on the side of improvement and advancement. He is respected (sic) by all because of his upright life, fidelity to duty and reliability in business affairs, and well deserves mention in this volume.

Notes for Samuel Robinson:

1850 US Census for Pawtucket, Bristol, MA - Samuel Robenson, laborer, born England abt 1806. Ann born England abt 1813.

Massachusetts Birth Records, 1840-1915 show Samuel Robinson and Ann Robinson as parents of Samuel Bacen (Bacon) Robinson, born May 31, 1849. Both parents born in England. Sam is a laborer, living in Pawtucket, Mass. This land was later transferred to Rhode Island.

NOT ours: A Samuel Robinson brn abt 1808 arrived New York 1829.

One brn abt 1806 arrived in Philly 1820 on the Bingham. With him were Ann Robinson age 50, Henry age 17, John age 20, all from Great Britain. No idea if they are related.

---

A Samuel Robinson was christening at Cathedral, Manchester, Lancashire, England, Mar 2, 1806. His mother was Phebe Robinson. Another Samuel was christened July 12, 1806, in Lees, Lancashire, Eng. His parents were James and Betty Robinson. FamilySearch.org lists about a dozen others. See the printed pages.

Notes for A. Ann Pollard:

1860 US Census - Ann Robinson age 47 (brn abt 1813) widow - has property. Possibly born England (can't read it clearly).

In 1860 she was living in Kewanee, Illinois with Thomas W. Robinson, age 27, born abt 1833 in Massachusetts, a wheelwright; JD Robinson, 23, born abt 1837 in New York; R Robinson, 21 born abt 1839 in New York; James Robinson, 18, born abt 1842, in Rhode Island; Elizabeth Robinson, 16, born abt 1844 in Rhode Island; SB Robinson, 11, born abt 1849 in Massachusetts.

This is our A. Ann Pollard Robinson, who died in Jan of 1861 and is buried in Kewanee. Tombstone says she died at age 48.

See if Ann Pollard born July 4, 1813, Lane Particular Baptist, Bramley By Leeds, York, England is our ancestor. If so can track her parents from Bramley.

A. Ann Pollard and Samuel Robinson had the following children:

- i. Thomas W Robinson (son of Samuel Robinson and A. Ann Pollard) was born in 1833 in New York or Massachusetts.

---

Notes for Thomas W Robinson:

1850 US Census shows Thomas works in a "Print Works."

Our family's name comes up as Robenson in the 1850 U.S. Census, Pawtucket, Bristol Co., Mass (An area later transferred to Rhode Island). Thomas, a son of Samuel Robinson, is listed as working as a print maker in 1850. Thomas is about age 17. His father is listed as a laborer. His Mother and siblings have no occupations listed. What makes this census exciting is the additional discovery that Pawtucket had a printer of cloth, one Jacob Dunnell. This latter information is from here: <http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~rigenweb/Pawtucket100years.html> . Dunnell printed calico cloth, as is documented in the following book: Fibre & Fabric: A Record of American Textile Industries in the Cotton and Woolen Trade, Volume 36, January 1, 1902, page 123.

From New England families genealogical and memorial, by William Richard Cutter (LH has copy): On page 2100 is the following: Dunnell: (VI) Jacob (3), eldest child of Jacob (2) and Mary (Lvman) Dunnell, was born December 29, 1811, in North Providence, now a part of Providence, and was educated in his native city, pursuing a course in bookkeeping. About 1836 he went to Pawtucket, where he became bookkeeper and assistant at what has been for many years known as Dunnell's Print Works, then a small establishment owned by Royal Sibley and Crawford Allen, and operated by Mr. Sibley. Calico printing was then a new industry in this country, and the machinery used could print but one color. By faithful attention to his duties Mr. Dunnell became thoroughly familiar with the business, and when it was disposed of by the owners he was capable of taking charge and successfully managing the same, which he did. At first the business was conducted under the name of Jacob Dunnell & Company, but this was subsequently known as the Dunnell Manufacturing Company, under which name it continued until 1899. For many years Mr. Dunnell was president of this company, as well as manager, but before his death his brother, Thomas L. Dunnell, became president, while Jacob continued as general manager. At this time the establishment had grown very greatly and turned out a very superior article of calico prints. The various improvements made in the machinery very greatly extended the capacity of the business, and through all its gradations Jacob Dunnell was the moving spirit.

It is inconceivable that Dunnell, Thomas Robinson, and our calico are just coincidence. Among the questions that remain: (1) When did Thomas or another of his family print the cloth we have? (2) When did the family move to Pawtucket? (3) Was our Pollard-calico connection an inventor or a laborer or both?

---

A History of American Manufactures from 1608 to 1860, by J. Leander Bishop, page 733-35: The Print Works of The Dunnell Manufacturing Company at Pawtucket are said to have been the first establishment of the kind in the United States; and in their arrangement as respects economy of labor and the best known modes of Calico Printing, are not surpassed in this country or Europe. The Print Shop is very lofty and well arranged, and contains ten machines, all of which are usually at work. In steam prints as many as ten colors or tints have been produced in one pattern, though the average is about four, and the result very satisfactory. An ingenious contrivance for untwisting the cloth as it comes from the dye-house is in successful operation at this establishment, by which one boy does the ordinary work of six men. This untwisting- machine receives the cloth, through a wooden funnel similar in shape to the hopper of a mill, into a trough of the width of the fabric, forming an inclined plane. The boy attending to the machine assists the opening of the cloth, which is chiefly effected by an undulatory motion, applied as it descends from the funnel. This partial spreading out is rendered more complete by the passage of the fabric over the curved edge of a piece of wood, across which it is drawn on the ascent up the inclined plane or trough, which conducts it to a series of wooden rollers with spiral edges of brass fixed in their surface. These open the cloth completely, in a similar manner to the iron spreading roller attached to every calico printing machine.

The steam is also economized to a very considerable extent. It at first worked at high pressure, then taken off at 10 lbs. to the square foot for bleaching purposes, and then again at 1 lb. to the square foot or heating the decoctions of dye-stuffs. By this means little or no steam is lost, and the saving is said to be about 33 per cent, in fuel over thy English method. No steam is visible in the bleach-house, whilst in bleach-houses generally the upper part is full-and of course this is all waste. An intelligent Englishman has remarked that the goods printed by Messrs. Dunnell bear comparison with most of the same class printed in Europe. The steams are clear and bright in color ; the madders, especially the lawn fabrics, clean and well finished; the prints being generally pure and of excellent tint.

Thomas enlisted October 15, 1861 as a private in the Wisconsin infantry. He was discharged Oct 14 1864 in Milwaukee, after nearly severing his right hand with a circular saw. The record shows him in Sheboygon, Wisconsin in 1873. He is listed as 5'5" tall. He was a wagon maker and his residence after discharge was in Waterloo, MO, where his brother Sam B. was living. Thomas is listed as divorced as of 1873. He was admitted to the National Home in 1893, 95, 99 and 05. He died at the home March 17, 1906. Interned in the Home Cemetery, Block 14, No 386. He left $2.70, which was sent to Oscar E. Robinson, his son.

From What was Pawtucket like 100 years ago, by Helen George Larkin and authored by Catherine E. Martin Larkin: Pawtucket today is a thriving community and a recognized center of industrial activity. It began its municipal life in March one hundred years ago, during the administration of President John Quincy Adams. A period of active agitation culminated in March 1829 in an act of the Massachusetts Legislature setting off a part of the town of Seekonk on the east side Pawtucket Falls and naming the new township "Pawtucket." It was Pawtucket Mass then and remained thus until March 1862 when annexation by Rhode Island was permitted. The new town of Pawtucket was formally organized on March 17th 1828 when the first town meeting was held .... On Pleasant Street was the Thornton Home. On East Av., the Wheaton family had a bakery in back. On Park Place the Wilkerson family lived and gave the land which was called Wilkerson Park; Dr Clapp was also on Park Place. We had masons, bricklayers, plasterers, and painters, then we had Wm. Haskell Bolt & Screws. At the back of the Strand was a paper mill run by Harem Thomas (the Jolly and Linden brothers afterwards owned it). Jacob Dunnel had a print works for printing cloth; Frank Sayles bought his home and later his son, Frank, donated the land for the Memorial Hospital.

From the LDS microfiche: Anne, daughter of John Coltas, christened 28 Jan 1734. "There is, however, another Ann (note spelling), christened 9 Oct 1763, daughter of John Coultas. I believe the two Johns are the same, however, as the records I have show that there were as many as 22 children in this family (some sets of twins). Now if you have 15 children -18 months to 2 years apart, it would take 30 years to have them! Wow! My William and his wife Elizabeth had 13! By the time she had the last child, the oldest children were marrying! The 'women' married VERY young... 13, 14, 15. That was NOT uncommon. Indeed, my ggg grandmother was 14 when she married. (I shudder to think of THAT!) My ggg grandfather was nearly TWICE her age ... I confirmed the marriage of Ann and George Otley: 25 Jan 1785.
