Notes for AMY ANN ROBINSON:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandrw dot com):

1850 US Census, Pawtucket, Bristol, MA, spells her name Amey and family name Robenson.

She died when Jennie Otley was 3. Grandma (Jennie) said she was filling an oil lamp used for curling her hair when there was a fire.

Reference in Neponset Historical Society Office, Sept 1998, says "Amy/Emma Anne Robinson, born 1834."

Historical Society notes say the Robinson family was among the first arriving from the east to settle in Neponset, but was it Amy's Robinsons? A Bureau Co. history says "Emma" was a native of Dutchess Co., NY.

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandrw dot com):

From Clyde Williams, talking to LH:

Grandma Clyde and the family of her generation gave his middle name as "Colton." English records say "Coultas."

About 1900-03, the Otleys sold their farm in Neponset and bought a hotel in town -- The Otley House. Grandpa Otley's first wife -- Amy Ann (Jennie's mother)-- died in a fire. She was filling oil lamps. Jennie was age three. Thomas Otley's second wife was younger. She helped to run the hotel (What can I say? That's how Grandma Clyde told it to me).

-----
From book: Voters and Taxpayers of Bureau County, Neponset Township:

Thomas Otley was a farmer, Democrat, Methodist, owned 1650 acres valued at $16,000.

From book: History of Bureau County, page ____

"Thomas C. Otley, Neponset. The subject of this sketch was born October 5, 1833, in Westow, Yorkshire, England. He is a son of John and Jane (Chapman) Otley. (See the genealogy of the Otley family in a preceding sketch). Our subject was principally reared in Scott County, Ill. to which he came with his parents in the fall of 1840. He remained there till after he reached his majority, and then came to Neponset Township, Bureau County, where he formed a partnership with his brother George, which lasted several years. During that time they dealt in cattle and livestock and farmed. After they dissolved partnership, our subject continued the stock business for some years. He now lives on a farm of 160 acres in Section 22. Mr. Otley was married twice. His first wife, Emma Robinson, was a native of Dutchess County, NY She died here, leaving five children, viz: Alonzo, Addie, Jane, Lizzie and Amy. Mr. Otley was married a second time September 23, 1866, to Charlotte Phillips, who was born May 6, 1844, in Cortland County, N.Y. She is the mother of Charlotte Otley, who was born January 24, 1868. Mrs. Otley is a daughter of William and Malinda (Helmer) Phillips, natives of New York, where the latter died. The former died in Neponset, Ill., to which he came in 1864. Mr. Otley is no office seeker, and politically he is identified with the Democratic party."

1910 U.S. Census - Thomas and Charlotte were running their hotel in Neponset.

1865 State Census shows TC Otley living in Brawby, Bureau Co.

6. JANE "JENNIE"<sup>4</sup> OTLEY (AMY ANN<sup>3</sup> ROBINSON, A. ANN<sup>2</sup> POLLARD, POLLARD<sup>1</sup>)<sup>47</sup> was born 15 Sep 1861 in Illinois<sup>48</sup>, and died 28 Nov 1961 in Los Angeles, California<sup>49</sup>. She married LEO LINCOLN LYFORD<sup>50</sup> 15 Feb 1883 in At home of T.C. Otley, Neponset, Illinois<sup>51</sup>, son of JOSEPH LYFORD and SARAH HINMAN. He was born 30 Nov 1860 in Neponset, Bureau Co., IL<sup>52</sup>, and died 20 Mar 1955 in Los Angeles, California<sup>52</sup>.

Notes for JANE "JENNIE" OTLEY:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandrw dot com):

Have a letter to Jennie Lyford dated Oct 4, 1922. It's from "Cousin Ellen," in Kewanee, IL. She says she "thinks grandma had three brothers, William, John and Thomas Chapman." She is correct. She says John Otley, Sr. and wife, Jane, came to the U.S. from the County of Yorkshire, England in 1840. They bought a farm near Winchester, Scott Co., IL. They had four sons: John, Robert, and Thomas L. Otley. On this farm, John Otley, Jr. died in 1855. John, Sr. died on the farm on a Friday evening, Aug. 5, 1864, at the age of 78 years, 6 months, 13 days.

Talked with the Lyford cousins in Neponset, Moses Victor, Scott and sister Helen, Sept, 1998 (they pronounce the town name as: "knee-pon-set"). Helen Lyford said she recalls "Aunt Jane (Jennie Lyford) saying: "If the Lord meant you to smoke, he'd have built you with a chimney."

Notes for LEO LINCOLN LYFORD:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandrw dot com):

Leo and Jennie met at the home of friends (Grandma Clyde says they met at a barn dance). He says a little about this in his diary, which LH has. They were married 2-15-1883, by Rev. Wilson. Leo was 22 and Jennie was 21.

There were two churches in Neponset, Congregational and Methodist. The Lyfords went to the Methodist. Grandma Clyde and her sister, Jane, sang in the choir. The Lyfords had a farm. When Joseph Lyford died March 1, 1900, Leo used his share of the inheritance to move to Kewanee.

On the farm (in Neponset or Kewanee? It's not clear) they raised oats and corn on more than 200 acres. They had a horse and cows. They had a "good" house. Grandma Clyde says she rode the horse. They also had a buggy, which Grandma said she liked to make "go fast."

The Lyfords moved from Kewanee to LA in 1903. According to Grandma Clyde, in a tape-recorded talk with LH, Jennie's cousin, Lillian Galloway Murdock moved from Kewanee to California. Her letters "helped to spread the fever to the Lyfords." They came to LA on a "tourist train." The trip took about a week and they had a "great time." They bought a house on Maple Street and lived there until moving to 1407 Portia St. Lillian and another close friend even lived with them for a while.

Leo Lyford, a farmer in Illinois, went to work for the gas company. Later, Hazel (and, maybe, Bert) helped get him on at Union Hardware & Metals, in LA, where he stayed 25 years.

When the family moved to 1407 Portia Street, in LA on December 2, 1921, they bought a square of adjoining lots. Grandma and Grandpa lived at 1407 Portia, LA. One house to the north were Hazel and Bert Caudry. Behind Hazel were Aymee and Bernie Hudson. Behind Grandma and Grandpa was a small house owned by one of them that was a rental. When they bought, there was one house on the lot. The Lyfords built a second house for income. Aunt Hazel later bought it. Aymee and Uncle Bernie built the third house (the tiny one) to live in while they built their house on McDuff.

Leo and Jennie became members of the first Nazarene Church to be founded, called: First Church of the Nazarene, at 1177 West 25th St., Los Angeles. Dr. P.F. Bresee was the founder. This was March 20, 1903. Was 6th and Wall Sts. the second address? Leo was a long-time faithful worker, according to church newsletter. Jennie was a greeter at the door for 30+ years.

Have a certificate: "In Memoriam. This certificate is presented in memory of Mr. L.L. Lyford whose name has been placed on the Memorial Roll Nazarene Foreign Missionary Society Church of the Nazarene. Los Angeles First Church, May 17, 1955."

From the Nazarene church newsletter: "Translated to the more excellent glory, Leo L. Lyford passed away in the glorious triumph of the Christian Faith in the early morning of March 20, 1955 at the age of ninety-four. We will hold in precious memory this saintly man who with Mother Lyford occupied the front seat of the sanctuary for so many years. Brother and sister Lyford celebrated their seventy-second wedding anniversary last month. They were received in the membership of First Church by its founder and first pastor, Dr. P.F. Bresee and have been loyal members for fifty-two years. The funeral was conducted at Bresee Brothers' Mortuary with Dr. Weaver W. Hess officiating. Mrs. Ruth Miller sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "In the Sweet By and By." Mrs. Mary Stewart was at the chapel organ. Our deep sympathies are extended to Mother and the family."

"Have a bulletin from April, 1950. In it is a photo of Grandpa Lyford on his knees driving nails as he helps build the new Nazarene church. The caption says: "Dad" Lyford, Old-Timer, Faithful Worker on New Church Building. Mr. and Mrs. L.L. Lyford joined the church in 1903. They have been members for 47 years. From Illinois they came to Los Angeles in the month of February. In March they joined the march from the tabernacle on Los Angeles street to the new church building at Sixth and Wall. Mr. and Mrs. Lyford have been married 67 years. "Dad" Lyford will be 90 years of age his next birthday. He is a forward looking man building bridges for youth. He faithfully works on the new church building. He hits the nail on the head. In such a spirit he will never die. He will live forever." A handwritten note in the margin says he worked 200 hours on the building.

From a "This is your life" presentation to the Lyfords at the Nazarene Church, commemorating their 70th wedding anniversary:

"Leo and Jennie were born in Neponset. Great Grandpa Lyford went there in 1834 and helped to start the town. He owned the general store (more detail in Neponset book) and grain elevator. Great Grandpa Otley was a cattleman.

"The Lyfords met at the home of friends, and Leo said it was love at first sight. One afternoon later, as Jennie was ironing, she received a letter. The letter was from Leo asking for a date.

"They were married Feb. 15, 1883 by Rev. Wilson. Leo was 22, Jennie was 21.

"The Lyfords joined the first Nazarene church to be founded, on Los Angeles St.. The preacher was Dr. Bresee, who founded the church. A small boy, who became a charter member of the church and later a minister and scholar is the Dr. J. Proctor Knott (his photo is in Aymee's HS yearbook). He is here to honor the Lyfords.

"When the Grand Ave. church was founded in 1908, the Lyfords became charter members. The church used to meet in homes and have prayer meetings. Leo used to lead out in choruses, particularly "I believe the Bible." By 1910, the Lyfords both came back to First church again.

"We would like to say in closing that Mr. and Mrs. Lyford have been faithful in their attendance and support of the church all these years. It was an inspiration and a challenge to all the men of this church to see Mr. Lyford down here night after night, and sometimes days, doing heavy work, helping to build a new church; and Mrs. Lyford has stood at the door greeting friends and strangers for more than 30 years.?"

From a newspaper clipping (LA Times): "Couple Mark 70th Anniversary by Exchanging Verbal Valentines. Leo Lincoln Lyford, 92, and his wife Jennie Ann, 91, marking their 70th anniversary yesterday, exchanged verbal 'Valentines,' in answer to the question:

'How have you managed almost three-quarters of a century of wedded bliss?'

'It was easy,' Lyford began. 'She's always been a good wife and...'
'Say,' his wife interrupted. 'He did it. He did it by being the perfect husband. He doesn't smoke, drink or chew.'
'Tried all three a couple of times,' Lyford admitted, ruefully. 'Made me sick every time.'

Both were born in Neponset, Ill. Lyford's middle name springs from the fact that he was born the same year (1860) that Abraham Lincoln was elected to his first term as president.

Married in Neponset in 1883, the couple have made their home in Los Angeles since 1903. Lyford was retired from the Union Hardware & Metals Co. in 1931.

'As I recall,' Lyford said, 'our marriage had sort of a grim beginning.'
Seems that about 50 guests attended their wedding and during the reception afterward one of those Midwest snowstorms struck hard. All the guests had to spend the night with the bride and groom.

'The sun was shining brightly yesterday, however, on the little cottage at 1407 Portia St. where the Lyfords entertained some 80 guests, including their four daughters, eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.'

On 71st wedding anniversary LA Examiner ran a photo of the Lyfords, calling them the "longest married couple in Los Angeles County."

Leo retired after 35 years with the Union Hardware Metal Co. The Lyfords celebrated their 72nd wedding anniversary on Feb. 15, just four weeks before he died. (from newspaper obit.).

Leo is buried in Inglewood Memorial Park.

Family lived at 4208 Lockwood in LA, Crawford St in LA, Honduras St. in LA.

The Lyford girls went to Neponset School, Neponset, IL. Grandma was at Neponset school until March, 1900. When they moved to LA, they went to Hollywood High School. Started there Sept, 1903. Grandma sang in the church choir in Neponset, rode a horse, and liked to drive the family buggy fast.

The Lyfords and the Williamses both went to the Nazarene Church in downtown LA early on in Los Angeles.

Grandma met her husband, Arthur Williams, at the Nazarene Church on 6th and Wall, in LA. She says John J. Williams, his father, was from New Hampshire before moving to Fremont, Nebraska.

Notes for ARTHUR LLEWELLYN WILLIAMS:

These are the Family Tree Maker Notes Pages of Lyford Hale (lyfordhale at gwandr dot com):

WWI draft reg card shows he had blue eyes, medium height and build. Occupation at time of reg was "finisher" for a furniture company. Lived at 1200 S? 8th St, LA. He was married to Lottie Clyde Williams.

Some Williams direct descendants spell his name: Arthur Llewellyn.

Worked at a furniture factory in downtown LA, finishing furniture, says Dad. Dad's sister says he worked for his father, as did his brother Roy. They did hauling, roofing and other jobs. From public records, it appears both remember correctly, but they are thinking of different points in time.

- ii. ALMA JANE LYFORD<sup>62</sup>, b. 30 Oct 1886<sup>63</sup>; d. 02 Sep 1972<sup>63</sup>; m. LESTER M. WHITE<sup>64</sup>, 12 May 1923; b. 09 Oct 1897; d. 13 Sep 1963.

Notes for ALMA JANE LYFORD:

Have a typewritten letter from Miss Lottie E. Granger, 1547 Fourth Street, Des Moines, IA, to Miss Alma J. Lyford, dated 11-13-1922. Miss Lyford lived in Los Angeles.

My Dear Miss Lyford:

Yours of recent date just at hand. Allow me to say that if you will send me three or four blanks, which you can secure from the Registrar of D.A.R., where you expect to apply for membership, I shall be pleased to make you a copy of your ancestral service in the Revolution, to the extent of three, and perhaps four, of your forebears, viz: James Hosley, Abner Whitcomb, ancestors of Sarah Hosley Whitcomb, Josephine Hinman Lyford's mother; also Simeon Hurd, and perhaps one other ancestor named Weller, whose line I am now working. The two latter on the side of Chas. G. Hinman, father of said Josephine.

Of these you can choose the one most to your taste, or enter on all, though there are extra fees for the examination of papers for more than one ancestor.

I have sent material to Mrs. Mary Ett South, granddaughter of Rolandus B. Hinman, C.G.'s brother, to Margaret Welch St. Clair, Gr. G. Dau. of C.G., to Mrs Rounseville also. The two former have reported admittance into local chapters.

I met your father Leo Lyford, before he was married, when I was living under this roof and the home was in Clarinda. I have also met nearly every one else of our father's relations I am pleased to say, and all are of peculiar interest to me because of my love for your great Aunt Helen, or "Nell Henshaw" as you call her. Mr. Henshaw is nearly 83, now totally blind. We are living in a duplex, our own, occupying the 1st floor, the home just as it was when Mrs. H. died, January 3, 1920. Mr. H is very well though totally blind. I have given up my regular occupation, teaching, to administer the affairs of her estate, against the time when they must pass to some one else; keeping the house for Mr. Henshaw, who feels that no where else can he be so self-helpful, nor so contented as here; at the same time I am very busy with much that pertains to her papers, letters, etc. I am very busy all the time, with a business that exceeds in variety that of any other woman of my acquaintance; but it is a labor of love and that is why I am here.

Any details of yourself and your father's own family will be received by me with interest passing that of a mere stranger, or an acquaintance only, for I some times feel very deeply that the modified words of Ruth to Naoma are true of me in respect to Helen Henshaw: Thy people are my people; thy God my God.

Awaiting further instructions from you in the coming of the required blanks, I am,

Very truly,
Lottie E. Granger

P.S. allow me to state that you are invited to join the Colonial Dames. Locally here one is never invited who has the keen edge of pressing eligibility. "A word to the wise", therefore our Des Moines Colonial Dames are very blue blooded and exclusive.

Alma Jane moved to Leisure World in 1963,. Also lived on Commercial, in South Gate, CA.

Notes for HAZEL LEONA LYFORD:

Have a favorable letter of referral from the Union Harware & Metal Company, dated Sept. 16, 1911. It says Hazel Lyford has worked for them for five years as a billing clerk, for the last two as head of the department.

Have a Department of Commerce Bureau of the Census record dated September 28, 1954. It says in the census of 1900, taken June 1, Hazel lived with her parents at 516 East 3rd, Kewanee, Henry County, Illinois. She was 11, having been born February, 1889 in Illinois.

Photo of Hazel with Tandy Truman and Anna Holcomb: Holcomb appears to be Anna Onettie Holcomb who married Gustave Dalbeck in 1910 in LA. Tandy Truman or Freeman??? Found a Tandy Freeman, born 1887, in school in 1900 US Census on same page as Sunie Holcomb, mother of Anna (Annie) Onettie Holcomb. They lived in South Carolina, then both show up in LA. She's born 1888.

Have a Dept of Commerce Bureau of Census letter to Hazel dated Sept 28, 1954 reporting her mention in 1900 US Census. 516 East 3rd, Kewanee, Hentry Co, Illinois. Hazel L. Lyford, daughter, age 11, brn Feb

1889, Illinois, in the family of Leo L. and Jennie Lyford.

Notes for BERT CAUDRY:

Lived in Yuma, Arizona, from about 10-21-1913 to 1937. Uncle Bert worked for E.F. Sanguinetti. Bert was a community leaders and in the thick of Yuma society. He and Hazel loved to travel. Have lots of photos of them in fun places, hunting, fishing, visiting Santa Cruz, etc. Bert became ill and was in a wheelchair. Despondent over illness and, possibly, because of bad business deals, he took his own life. Even worse, Hazel found him.

Have a letter of referral dated 3-6-1907 from the Chapman Milling Co. of Sherman, TX. It says Bert has been in their employ for five years as their bookkeeper and done well.

Hazel wrote that his favorite songs were: "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning" and "Day is Dying in the West."

The Morning Sun, Yuma 1923, has article about the local Kiwanis Club. Bert is pictured as President of the Club and Credit Man for E.F. Sanguinetti.

When Bert was 10 he earned some money for the first time and used it to buy his Mom a set of 6 knives and six forks. They have Ivory (or simulated ivory) handles and a Sterling Silver band around each one.

- iv. AYMEE ANN ROBINSON LYFORD<sup>73</sup>, b. 16 Apr 1891, Illinois<sup>74</sup>; d. 26 Oct 1975, Los Angeles, California<sup>75</sup>; m. BERNHEART WILLIAM HUDSON<sup>76,77,78</sup>, 16 Jul 1914, Los Angeles, California<sup>79</sup>; b. 22 Feb 1886, Raton, Colfax County, New Mexico<sup>80,81</sup>; d. 14 Jan 1961, Los Angeles, California.

Notes for AYMEE ANN ROBINSON LYFORD:

Aymee went to Los Angeles High School. Her wedding book says she and Bernie were married at home, 3012 Maple Ave, LA, by Rev Clarence E. Connell. The date was July 13, 1914. They met at the home of a friend, C.E. Watson, July 13, 1913 and became engaged on September 21. There were about 10 guests present at the wedding. The bride was 5'6" tall and weighed 170. The groom was 5'11" and weighed 180. Hey, it's in their wedding book! I don't write it; I only report.

They honeymooned at Coronado, by San Diego, California.

LH has Aymee's wedding announcement and the wedding book.

Aymee died of MS, which she fought for years. Even when confined to a wheel chair she never lost her great sense of humor.

More About AYMEE ANN ROBINSON LYFORD:

Fact 1: Named after her grandma Amy Ann Robinson Otle

Fact 2: May have died in 1975

Notes for BERNHEART WILLIAM HUDSON:

Have a printed card from the Hudsons reading: Mr. & Mrs. Bernheart W. Hudson. Wedding cert reads "Bernheart" - NOT Bernhard or Bernard.

1900 US Census reads "Bernard." That's not the correct spelling. Bernie signed his own name "Bernheart." LH has signature samples and other official family documents.

Bernie was a charter member of Olivette Chapter No. 503, Order of the Eastern Star, 9-13-1928. He worked for Southern Pacific Lines. Was a Lead Passenger Car Man #4215, Los Angeles General Shops. Did passenger car repairs. (Have an envelope addressed to him with title noted above.)

Bernie's death cert says his last job was as a cabinet maker for Southern Pacific, where he worked 31 years.

His ashes are in Inglewood Cemetery, Los Angeles, CA.

Bernie loved to do woodworking. Was known for his gavels, miniature grandfather clocks, and other items. Nearly all were given to friends and are no longer in the family. The family has a covered wagon drawn by oxen that he made, a gavel made of turned ironwood with a fossilized ivory head, fossilized ivory carved figures from his time in Alaska, two men carved from wood, and other handmade items. The fossilized ivory is thought to be Walrus tusk. He may have purchased or found the fossilized ivory when he went to Alaska in July of 1932 to pan for gold. The family has a photo of Bernie and his Brother-in-Law Bert panning for gold in what looks to be the Nevada or Arizona desert. Does that make them the original Bert and Bernie?

Bernie also loved his mean, yippy, snappy little dogs. We couldn't get near them without getting bitten, but he thought it wonderful to show us tricks he'd taught the little beggers.

Notes for LILLIAN EDNA GALLOWAY:

According to Grandma Clyde, in a tape-recorded talk with Lyford, Jennie's cousin, Lillian Galloway Murdock moved from Kewanee to California. Her letters "helped to spread the fever to the Lyfords." They came to LA on a "tourist train." The trip took about a week and they had a "great time."
